DESCRIPTION

This image shows a pair of handrails designed for boat gangways. The handrails are made of lightweight aluminum, making them both sturdy and resistant to corrosion in marine environments. Each rail features a durable rope threaded through the top, providing additional support and safety for users. The set includes a pulley system at one end, which simplifies the installation and tensioning of the rope. The other end has a metal clip, enabling secure attachment to the gangway or boat structure. These handrails are ideal for enhancing safety and stability when boarding or disembarking a boat. Technical specifications: Pole length - 80cm, diameter - 25mm. Rope length - 3.3m, Rope diameter - 9mm.
